About This Game

This is a game of doomsday theme. You can live in the game by yourself or with your friends. You have to build your own shelter, find food, collect resources, collect materials, make weapons and refine metals. You have to exaggerate your territory in the right places. You can call other players to join you. Our team also faces the plunder and abuse of other players. You can also desperately grab other people's resources, kill each other and try every means to survive.

There is a very good construction system in the game, you can use your imagination to build a variety of creative buildings, each building material needs different materials, we will continue to add various building templates in later updates, you can continue to experience the new architectural style.

what i say DIE RUST DIE !!! FASTER U DIE FASTER ILL BE HAPPY!!! I purchased this game with little expectations(being in beta stage). I only play PVE (single player games). The game had it's issues but I was giving the developers time. One other issue, there is no communication from the developers at all. They just updated the game without the PVE option. I have asked for a refund and highly recommend you do not purchase this game if they are going to make changes like this.. Game plays like rust. if u like rust but want single player scenario then buy this game. so far its ok game yea there are bugs and such but the game plays very well. I like playing single player and the game so far has been fun. I haven't noticed any crashes or anything while playing or loading, so far keep up the good work devs. Also try to communicate more with the community that way we know yer listening. Us as customers we like to know what has been updated to make sure that the game hasnt gone radio silent and become abandoned ware.. stay the hell away from this... max resolution is 1080p sound is bad, not a lot of options to play with. but guess what, you don't care, buy it and try it for yourself.. I had all the evidence right in front of me, that this was a cheaply made game that was not even worth $6.99, but I didn't listen. I bought the stupid game and I put graphics on low, wen I tried to join a server, there was a message that said something like "Wait one moment" ok one moment... I think it was a little more then one moment, or a lot more! I had to wait like 20 minutes and it just crashed, so I opened the game again and the same thing happened. I noticed that it would always stop at 27%... and then crash. I'm telling you this now DO NOT GET THIS GAME. It is a SCAM. Now I want my money back.

NO ONE PLAYS IT....LIKE AT ALL!! Also the graphics are pretty bad and runs poorly. What do you expect for 6 bucks though.. this game is very poor looking, there are many spelling errors and it wouldn't even load after an hour. Dont bother it donkey♥♥♥♥♥EU servers run by roland rat aint been able to play for a month its a steaming peace of donkey do. SAVE YOUR MONEY. In short words, it's a light single player - coop version of Rust against monsters and zombies.

If you like Rust and you also like the PvE, it is worth trying for just over 5$. I purchased this game with little expectations(being in beta stage). I only play PVE (single player games). The game had it's issues but I was giving the developers time. One other issue, there is no communication from the developers at all. They just updated the game without the PVE option. I have asked for a refund and highly recommend you do not purchase this game if they are going to make changes like this.. it keeps on crashing
